

EHRA 2010

Departure Dates

All projects run from the Monday morning on the starting date, to the Friday afternoon of the finish date. Participants can book a minimum of one two-week slot, or multiple slots, up to three months (six slots) maximum.

It is advisable to arrive before the departure date, and give yourself enough time to reach the airport for your flight out. Please contact us for advice on this matter.

All accommodation before and after project dates is at your own cost, as is the optional weekend at the end of every 2 week slot.

All project departures are subject to availability and confirmation with the EHRA office. Flights should only be booked once you have received such confirmation from EHRA. All bookings will be regarded as provisional, up until the receipt of deposit confirmation. Booking priority would be given to first deposit confirmation, not first date booked. EHRA reserve the right to cancel with fair notice if we did not receive your deposit in time or under circumstances beyond our control i.e. political instability.
